

EDITORIAL

The year 2021 begins amid the same uncertainties that accompanied us the year before; however, the production of research and reflections remained active and diversified. This first issue presents reflections on various topics, such as medicine, paganism, mental health, digital relations, gender, Zen Buddhism, non-violent communication, elderly people, as well as philosophical discussions around Scheler and Phenomenology.

Good reading!

Adriano Holanda (Editor)

(This issue was finished at January 15, 2021)